1. Call to Order-The meeting was called to order by Chair, Lenny Carr, 10:06 am. This is the 2nd meeting of the year, since the committee did not meet in Feb or March.
2. Approval- Motion to approve the January meeting minutes called by Jim, seconded by Doug, all Aye
3. Reports (Sheriff and Fire Departments)
    a. PSCO – The reports were reviewed. PSCO stayed busy with the Blue Jay events. E-bikes continue to be most of the issues on the trail. PSCO has obtained a set of E-bikes which will help with patrolling the trail through the city. Legislation has been approved, but not signed into law yet, with only minor restrictions to include bikes with no pedals (minibikes). Audible sound on approach and yield to pedestrian are only a few of the recommended laws. Much more work on this in the future will be heard.
    b. Fire Dept - The department was busy with the Blue Jays events. The Fire route 60 board is oos for bottom refinishing.
4. Request/Information from the City Resolution 99-13 recommendation for committee attendance records is being discussed. The discussion on consolidation of committees is still pending with more information, hopefully by May.
5. Old Business - The City Clerk is meeting with each of the combined committees to establish and ensure the understanding of the new combined resolution and responsibilities of the committees. Any questions for now, contact Teresa
